

A Small Town in Germany (Paragon Softcover Large Print Books)

Exciting, compulsively readable and brilliantly plotted The New York Times The missing man: Harting, refugee background, a Junior Something in the British Embassy in Bonn. The missing files: forty-three of them, all Confidential or above. The timing: appalling and probably not accidental; radical students and neo-Nazis rioting; critical negotiations in Brussels. Londons security officer, Alan Turner, is sent to Bonn to locate the missing man and files as Germanys past, present and future threaten to collide in a nightmare of violence.
