

Mad About The Boy (Black Lace)

Sophie Taylors lazy-girl lifestyle is about to unravel. Shes been with partner Rex for seven years, and now he wants more commitment. She never planned for a long-term relationship with him. Since a drunken agreement where he offered to fulfil her sexual fantasies for seven years in return for a cash loan, theyve drifted into a cosy partnership. Yet still Sophie has a fascination with paying men for sex. As a birthday treat Rex poses as a male escort in one of Brightons posh seafront hotels. Its fun, but its not enough. Sophie needs the thrill of the real thing; the forbidden element that turns her on and is missing from her life with Rex. And so begins her descent into Brightons sleazier nightlife, where she meets Wolfie, the genuine gigolo article, and embarks on a series of liaisons that spread out to suburbia and beyond.
