

Brideshead Revisited

[A Complete and Unabridged reading by Jeremy Irons] A classic of our time, beautifully performed by Jeremy Irons and the basis of the award-winning television miniseries, Brideshead Revisited tells the story of the Marckmain family, as narrated by friend Charles Ryder. Aristocratic, beautiful, and charming, the Marchmains are indeed a symbol of England and her decline; the novel a mirror of the upper-class of the 1920s and the abdication of responsibility in the 1930s. Brideshead Revisited has become shorthand for a fantasy era of titled elegance, dead-end hedonism and fatuous wit.
