

Bunny Brown and His Sister Sue (Bunny Brown and His Sister Sue (Hardcover))

Bunny! Bunny! Wake up! Its time! Whawhats matter? sleepily mumbled little Bunny Brown, making his words all run together, like molasses candy that has been out in the hot sun. Whats the matter, Sue? Bunny asked, now that he had his eyes open. He looked over the side of his small bed to see his sister standing beside it. She had left her own little room and had run into her brothers. Whats the matter, Sue? Bunny asked again. Why, its time to get up, Bunny, and Sue opened her brown eyes more widely, as she tried to get the sleepy feeling out of them. Its time to get up! Time to get upso early? Oh, Sue! It isnt Christmas morning; is it, Sue? and with that thought Bunny sat up suddenly in his bed. Christmas? No, of course not! said Sue, who, though only a little over five years of age (a year younger than was Bunny), sometimes acted as though older than the blue-eyed little chap, who was now as widely awake as his sister. Well, if it isnt Christmas, and we dont have to go to the kindergarten school, cause its closed, why do I have to get up so early? Bunny wanted to know. Bunny Brown was a great one for asking questions. So was his sister Sue; but Sue would often wait a while and find things out for herself, instead of asking strangers what certain things meant. Bunny always seemed in a hurry, and his mother used to say he could ask more questions than several grown folks could answer.
