Capers, Capparis Spinosa, Whats Cooking America Jun 2, 2014 Capers are pickled flower buds. Tiny capers are picked from a shrub-like bush (Capparis spinosa), long before the buds ever flower. The capers are then dried in the sun and later brined or packed in salt. (To use capers in recipes its a good idea to rinse them first, to remove all the excess salt or brine.) All About Capers, the Powerhouse Pantry Staple Serious Eats Caper definition, to leap or skip about in a sprightly manner prance frisk gambol.
