

Carries War (A Puffin Book)

A Puffin Book - stories that last a lifetime. Puffin Modern Classics are relaunched under a new logo: A Puffin Book. There are 20 titles to collect in the series, listed below, all with exciting new covers and fun-filled endnotes. Carries War by Nina Bawden is an unforgettable Second World War story. I did a dreadful thing...or I feel that I did, and nothing can change it... It is the Second World War and Carrie and Nick are evacuated from London to a small town in Wales, where they are placed with strict Mr Evans and his timid mouse of a sister. Their friend Albert is luckier, living in Druids Bottom with Hepzibah Green who tells wonderful stories, and the strange Mister Johnny, who speaks a language all of his own. Carrie and Nick are happy to visit Albert there, until one day when Carrie does a terrible thing - the worst thing she ever did in her life... Based on her own childhood, Nina Bawdens enchanting story Carries War has delighted readers for almost 40 years. Nina Bawden - without question one of the very best writers for children Daily Telegraph Perfect for fans of Goodnight Mister Tom by Michelle Magorian. Nina Bawden was one of the UKs best writers for both adults and children. She often used her own childhood experiences in her books - Carries War is set in the mining valley in Wales where she lived as an evacuee in wartime. She studied philosophy, politics and economics at Somerville College, Oxford and finished her first novel the year after she took her degree. She won the Guardian Award for Childrens Fiction for The Peppermint Pig. Nina died in 2012, aged 87.
