

Dancing After Hours: Stories

A New York Times Notable Book of the Year From a genuine hero of the American short story comes a luminous collection that reveals the seams of hurt, courage, and tenderness that run through the bedrock of contemporary American life. In these fourteen stories, Dubus depicts ordinary men and women confronting injury and loneliness, the lack of love and the terror of actually having it. Out of his characters struggles and small failures--and their unexpected moments of redemption--Dubus creates fiction that bears comparison to the short stories greatest creators--Chekhov, Raymond Carver, Flannery O'Connor.
