

Notes from Underground (Signet classics)

Considered by many as a founder or precursor of 20th century existentialism, his Notes from Underground (1864), written in the embittered voice of the anonymous underground man, was called by Walter Kaufmann the best overture for existentialism ever written. It presents itself as an excerpt from the rambling memoirs of a bitter, isolated, unnamed narrator (generally referred to by critics as the Underground Man) who is a retired civil servant living in St. Petersburg. Dostoyevsky is widely recognized as one of the greatest and most influential writers of all time.
