From There to Here: The story of how, without a plan, I unknowingly allowed fear to control my path.

How did I get here? How did I get to a place where I realized I wasn't who I thought I was. How did I allow my life to get so far from my goals? Were my goals even really goals? My story isn't unique, but it definitely has not been without its challenging, cussing, crying, laughing, shaking my head wondering how did I get here moments. Join me in this journey of self-revelation, as I step out of my comfort zone and share my story with you. You'll not only see how getting called out by my mentor in front of my peers helped me realize my goals were no more than a wish, but also how much fear was in control of my path. So, just for today I am here . . . where are you?
