

Golden Country

*DEBUT FICTION*Golden Country vividly brings to life the intertwining stories of three immigrants seeking their fortunes: the handsome and ambitious Seymour, a salesman turned gangster turned Broadway producer; the gentle and pragmatic Joseph, a door-to-door salesman who is driven to invent a cleanser effective enough to wipe away the shame of his brothers mob connections; and the irresistible Frances Gold, who grows up in Brooklyn, stars in Seymours first show, and marries the man who invents television. Their three families, though inextricably connected for years, are brought together for the first time by the engagement of Seymours son and Josephs daughter. David and Miriams marriage must endure the inheritance of not only their parents wealth but also the burdens of their pasts.Spanning the first half of the twentieth century, Golden Country captures the exuberance of the American dream while exposing its underbellydisillusionment, greed, and the disaffection bred by success.
