

Guilty Until Proven Guilty

There was a murder on the loose, a serial killer and rapist. The Full Moon Maniac -- that was what the ARMITAGE ADVERTISER called him, although only one of his attacks had occurred exactly on a night of a full moon -- who had struck three times in the past eighteen months. He preyed on couples in lovers lanes, locking the man in the trunk of a car while he forced the woman to commit what the ADVERTISER called unnatural acts. On the last occasion, a young man named John Evans had been shot to death. . . .
