

No Less Worthy

Kathy's life sucks and a fight with her mom confirms that nothing will ever change that. Teased at school and nothing more than an indentured servant at home, Kathy leaves vowing never to return. Surviving that night on her own means coming face-to-face with the demons of her mom's past and the uncertainty of her own future. Can she come to terms with her questionable ethnicity? With being fatherless and completely different from everyone else? Will Kathy continue her spiral toward the destructiveness of poverty, abuse, and low self-esteem? Or will she find a way out? And if so, what will it cost her?
