

The Black Robe

Published in 1881, Wilkie Collins's The Black Robe is the tale of Lewis Romayne, the possessor of an old country abbey, who accidentally kills his opponent in a duel. In a state of remorse, the protagonist flees to his friend in London, who is a Catholic. Wanting to start a fresh life, he falls into the trap of his friend's advisor, who wants to convert the abbey into a church.
