

Reflex

A classic mystery from Dick Francis, the champion of English storytellers.

Jockey and amateur photographer Philip Nore knows all too well how it feels to take a tumble from a horse. He also knows what its like to feel the wrath of furious owners and trainers. You cant always be a winner.

George Millace hated winners. As a photographer he specialized in taking pictures that exposed the failings of riders. But now hes dead - and no one seems very sorry. But when Millaces home is broken into during his funeral and Nore finds himself helping clear up, he finds something unexpected. Millace had other pictures - ones people will go to desperate lengths to possess. Now he must find out who wants them - and fast. Because if George Millaces death was no accident then his killers are getting closer...

Praise for Dick Francis: As a jockey, Dick Francis was unbeatable when he got into his stride. The same is true of his crime writing Daily Mirror Dick Franciss fiction has a secret ingredient - his inimitable knack of grabbing the readers attention on page one and holding it tight until the very end Sunday Telegraph The narrative is brisk and gripping and the background researched with care . . . the entire story is a pleasure to relish Scotsman

Francis writing at his best Evening Standard A regular winner . . . as smooth, swift and lean as ever Sunday Express A super chiller and killer New York Times Book Review Dick Francis was one of the most successful post-war National Hunt jockeys. The winner of over 350 races, he was champion jockey in 1953/1954 and rode for HM Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother, most famously on Devon Loch in the 1956 Grand National. On his retirement from the saddle, he published his autobiography, The Sport of Queens, before going on to write forty-three bestselling novels, a volume of short stories (Field of 13), and the biography of Lester Piggott. During his lifetime Dick Francis received many awards, amongst them the prestigious Crime Writers Associations Cartier Diamond Dagger for his outstanding contribution to the genre, and three best novel Edgar Allan Poe awards from The Mystery Writers of America. In 1996 he was named by them as Grand Master for a lifetime achievement. In 1998 he was elected a fellow of the Royal Society of Literature, and was awarded a CBE in the Queens Birthday Honours List of 2000. Dick Francis died in February 2010, at the age of eighty-nine, but he remains one of the greatest thriller writers of all time.
