

Showbiz.

Robert Gooden has written a thoroughly amusing tale of life in the fast lanes of Hollywood (Guy Ownes, Jr.). I liked Robert Gooden's SHOWBIZ...a fine good account of my son's life in Hollywood and the oddments he ran up on (Skeeter Jones, Sr.). Robert Gooden has written his most exciting novel yet...a truly timeless, remarkably textured, bluntly revealing mirror of how showbiz is...or ought to be...or might be. That we understand showbiz, the raw nature of star power and network abuse, and understand the role of Skeeter Jones in the shaping of entertainment as we know it today, is due to this book (anonymous). Robert Gooden, hailing from southern North Carolina is best known as a screenwriter and actor appearing in over seventy television programs and feature films including M*A*S*H, QUINCY, and the WALTONS. His latest film appearance is in BRAINSTROM with Natalie Wood. Mr. Gooden received an A.B. Degree from East Carolina University, and an M.A. from the University of Denver, and an M.S.B.C.B. Degree from Los Angeles, California where he is now residing and writing another novel.
