

Watching Willow Watts: One Country Girl is About to Discover That Fame Can Cost a Fortune

For twenty-five-year-old Willow Watts, life has settled into a predictably dull routine: days behind the counter at her fathers antique shop; nights watching fuzzy telly whilst the elderly residents of Britains Ugliest Village bed down for yet another early night. But everything changes when Willows epically embarrassing Marilyn Monroe impersonation is uploaded to YouTube. A canny viewer spots Marylins ghostly image hidden in the film and Willow becomes an international sensation. Her dire little town is suddenly overrun with fans proclaiming her to be the new Marilyn. Egged on by the villagers - whose shops and businesses are cashing in - Willow eagerly embraces her new identity, dying her hair platinum and scoffing cakes to achieve Marylins legendary curves. But when the only man she has ever truly loved returns, seeking the old Willow, its decision time. Should she risk stardom and the villages new-found fortune on love? Or is being Marilyn Willows real ticket to happiness?
