

The Balloon Man in Edinburgh

On a fine Spring day in Edinburgh, a strange, shabby little man alights from the train at Waverley Station and makes a beeline for Princes Street Gardens, bearing gifts for the squirrels that inhabit the trees there. He meets an old Polish gentleman who, feeling sorry for the little tramp, offers him free temporary accommodation in his large house on the edge of the Citys New Town. But old Josef doesnt know what he has let himself, or his tenants, in for. Over the next few days, the old landlord, poor lovelorn Miss Laird and the crook, Driscoll, will all feel the effect of Busters presence and their lives will be changed forever. A magical story of Springtime in Edinburgh which will lift your spirits and make you want to read it over and over again. Dont miss Buster while hes in town! A well-crafted novella which is a treasure.
