Thus begins a journey leading East to grandparents of a widely divergent social station. Her experiences are novel and sometimes humorous, but through them all she never quite forgets a certain tenderfoot who befriended her for a short time on her lonely journey. Grace Livingston Hill (April 16, 1865 - 1947) was an American writer, also used the pseudonym Marcia Macdonald. The Girl from Montana is a story of a young girl who finds Christ and become a Christian, published in 1922.
