

The Philanthropist: Or Political Peace-Maker Between All Honest Men of Both Parties (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Philanthropist: Or Political Peace-Maker Between All Honest Men of Both Parties

Be it remembered, that on the first day of January, in the thirty-third year of the independence of the United States of America, A. D. 1809, M L. Weems, of the said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit:[See title-page.]In conformity to the act of the congress of the United States, intituled, An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned; and also to the act intituled An act supplementary to an act, intituled, An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and fetching historical and other prints.
