

Sixth Wife

Henry VIII is looking for a new wife shortly after his murder of Catherine Howard. His choice falls on Katherine Parr. Surrounded by enemies, haunted by memories of her predecessors tragedies and deeply in love with Thomas Seymour, Katherine has no option. She knows her life depends on Henrys whims but miraculously survives to enter her fourth marriage with its mysterious end. Plaidy fans will not be disappointed, as one of the countrys most widely read novelists depicts the Tudor court in all its glory, dominated by the most merciless tyrant ever to sit upon the throne of England.
